

WHO: Families of young children who are deaf or hard of hearing

(Primarily for children ages 0-5; ten [10] spaces available for children over age 5)

WHEN: June 21-23, 2002; Friday afternoon till Sunday at noon

WHERE: Danville, KY.

A Weekend of Fun and Learning!

Sponsored by The KEY Project (Kentucky Early Years)

For the adults:

informative sessions from national & state leaders - topics include:

Home Activities for Learning,

Behavior/Discipline

State & National Resources

Introductory Sign Language,

What is the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) & How Does It Effect My Child?

Including a Deaf or Hear of Hearing Child in Family Activities

Deaf culture and what it is,

Working with your School Districts {How to advocate for your child.}

"The Communication Zone"; an interactive activity where you experience the many different types of communication the opportunity to meet other families who know how you feel the opportunity to interact with deaf and hard of hearing adults

free resource materials such as books & more

see nationally certified interpreters at work

For the children:

exposure to deaf & hard of hearing adult role models

deaf and hard of hearing peers just like themselves

a "Sib Shop" especially for siblings of deaf and hard of hearing children quality care by those who can communicate and are knowledgeable about hearing loss

swimming, field trips, and lots of other fun, fun activities

COST:

In state registration fees are $25.00 per family and out of state fees are $80.00 per family (up to 6 persons). Each additional person is $10.00. This covers the cost of 6 meals, lodging, presentations, children's activities, entertainment and resource materials.

For further information contact

Sue Spangenberg

800 540-3323 (v/tty)

REGISTRATION DEADLINE: MAY 17, 2002